Historical Note

---

This composition book was created in the Irvington area of Indianapolis.

---

Scope and Contents

---

This brown-cover Treasury Composition Book has 21 names numbered on the first pages. Beside each name is the year of the person's class, from 1911-1916. The pages have questions with numbered answers corresponding to the person's number. Some of the questions are: "Best looking boy," "Best looking girl," "What is your favorite street car line," "Your favorite book," "Your favorite expression," and "What is your favorite hobby?" The answers appear to be in the person's own handwriting. On the page asking for age, most of the answers were: 16.
